Teacher note

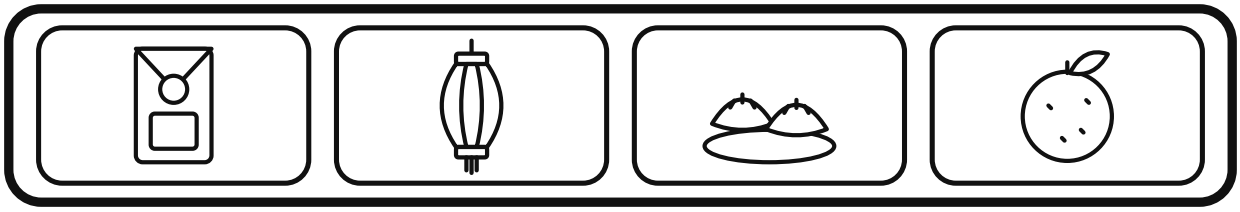

Read the mini-book on day 1 and find the answers together, keep the word mat out for writing, colour the bunting flags in red and gold and hang the Happy Lunar New Year banner, make a paper lantern each, then the colouring, the card, the word search and the colour-by-code sum. Answer keys are in the pack; pull them out before you photocopy.

Lunar New Year 2027 is on Saturday 6 February 2027: the Year of the Goat. Celebrations last until the Lantern Festival, 15 days later.

Printing: print at 100% (actual size). The reader's mini-book is one sheet that folds into 8 little pages; the steps are on its web page. The word mat and lantern pages are landscape. Each page has a QR code that opens its own page, where it can also be coloured online or printed again on its own.

What is Lunar New Year?

A Colouring Nest reader

Name _____

Words to know

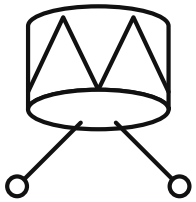

lunar
to do with the moon

calendar
a chart of the days and months of a year

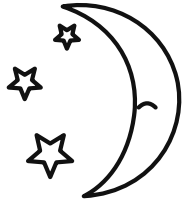

cycle
a set that repeats in the same order

reunion
when a family comes together again

decorations
things that make a place look special

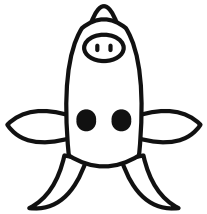

It is a big festival in China, Vietnam, Korea and many other places. Families all over the world celebrate it. In China, it is also called the Spring Festival.

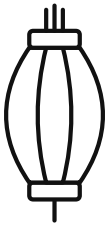

Lunar New Year starts the new year on the lunar calendar, which follows the moon. It begins with a new moon, between late January and the middle of February.

Each year has an animal from a cycle of twelve. The year that starts on 6 February 2027 is the Year of the Goat.

Before the new year, families clean their homes to sweep away bad luck. They hang red decorations. Red is a lucky colour that stands for happiness.

Children are often given red envelopes with money inside for good luck. There are lion dances, drums and fireworks. The festival ends with the Lantern Festival.

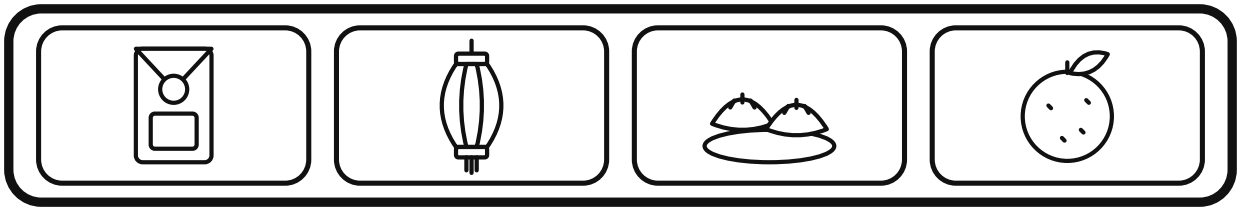

On New Year's Eve, families share a big reunion dinner. Many foods have lucky meanings. Dumplings, fish and oranges are popular.
