Easter and spring writing prompts

Cut out the cards. Pick one, or pick two and join them in one story.

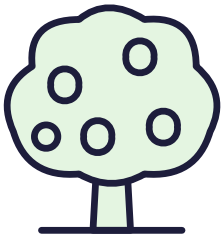

1. You find a giant egg in the garden. What hatches out of it?
2. Write a list of the best places to hide an egg, and why.
3. Describe a spring morning using your five senses.
4. A bilby and a rabbit have a race. Who wins, and how?
5. Design your own Easter egg. Describe its colours and pattern.
6. Write the rules for a fair egg hunt.
7. The eggs have all rolled away! Tell the story of how you found them.
8. Write a letter to a friend about your Easter holiday.
9. How does a chick hatch? Write what you know, then find out more.
10. If you could invent a new Easter game, what would it be?
11. Write a poem about spring (or autumn, if Easter is in autumn where you live).
12. Plan a picnic for the long weekend. What will you take?

The great egg hunt

Plan it in the box: who is hunting, and where? Then write your story.

Name _____ Date _____

Draw your egg hunt

On Easter morning, ...

We looked for eggs ...

Then something surprising happened: ...

In the end, ...

How to plan an egg hunt

Instructions: say what you need, then the steps in order. Use the time words.

Name _____ Date _____

You will need

1 First,

2 Next,

3 Then,

4 Finally,