New Year writing prompts (1 of 2)

Cut along the dashed lines. Pick a card, then write for ten minutes.

1

If this year were a book, what would the first chapter be called?

2

What is one thing you want to learn to do before the year ends?

3

Write a letter to yourself to open on the last day of the year.

4

What did you do last year that you want to keep doing?

5

Which habit would you like to start? What is the smallest first step?

6

Describe a time you kept going when something was hard.

7

Who helped you last year? What would you like to say to them?

8

What would make this a great year for our class?

9

Pick one word for your year. Why did you choose it?

10

Name a new food, place or game you want to try, and why.

11

How could you help someone at home or at school this year?

12

What might get in the way of your goal? What will you do then?

New Year writing prompts (2 of 2)

Cut along the dashed lines. Pick a card, then write for ten minutes.

13

Imagine it is the last day of the year. What are you proud of?

14

What do you want to get better at in sport, music or art?

15

Write three small goals you could finish this month.

16

What advice would you give a younger student starting this year?

17

What kind thing could you do for someone you don't know?

18

Which book do you want to read this year? What drew you to it?

19

What made you laugh the most last year?

20

Write about a mistake that taught you something.

21

How will you look after your body and your mind this year?

22

If you could learn from anyone this year, who would it be?

23

Plan a perfect weekend. Who is there and what do you do?

24

What would you like your friends to say about you in December?