The human body in numbers

Nine facts for the classroom wall. Can you find each one on our worksheets?

206

bones in a grown-up's skeleton

about 300

bones in a newborn baby; some join together as they grow

600+

muscles in your body

3

types of muscle: skeletal, smooth and cardiac

4

chambers in your heart

3 and 2

lobes in your right and left lungs

20

milk teeth by about age 3

32

teeth in a full grown-up set, with wisdom teeth

about 6 m

long: a grown-up's small intestine (21 feet)

Checked against KidsHealth, Britannica Kids, NHS inform, MedlinePlus and OpenStax (sources on colouringnest.com/human-body-worksheets/).