The five senses

Draw lines to match each sense organ to its sense, then to something you could sense with it.

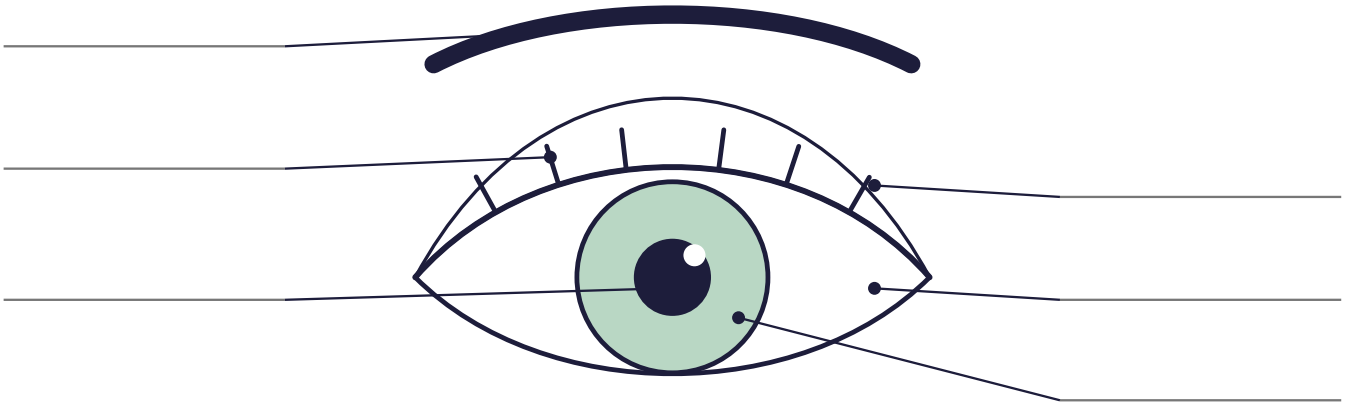

Name _____

Sense organ	Sense	Something to sense
	smell	a sour lemon
	touch	a rainbow after rain
	taste	a soft, furry kitten
	sight	a bell ringing
	hearing	bread baking

Label the eye

Look in a mirror at your own eye. Then label this one.

Name _____

Word bank

eyebrow | eyelashes | eyelid | iris | pupil | white of the eye

1. In bright light, your pupil gets _____ . In dim light it gets _____ .

2. The coloured ring round the pupil is the _____ .

3. Your eyelids and eyelashes help to keep _____ out of your eyes.

Which sense warns you? Write the sense on the line.

A smoke alarm is beeping. _____

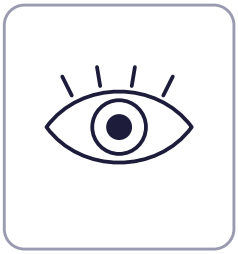

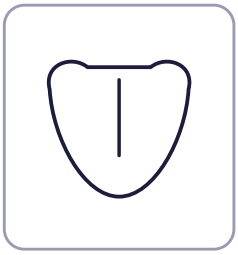

The milk has gone off and smells sour. _____

A pan handle is too hot to hold. _____

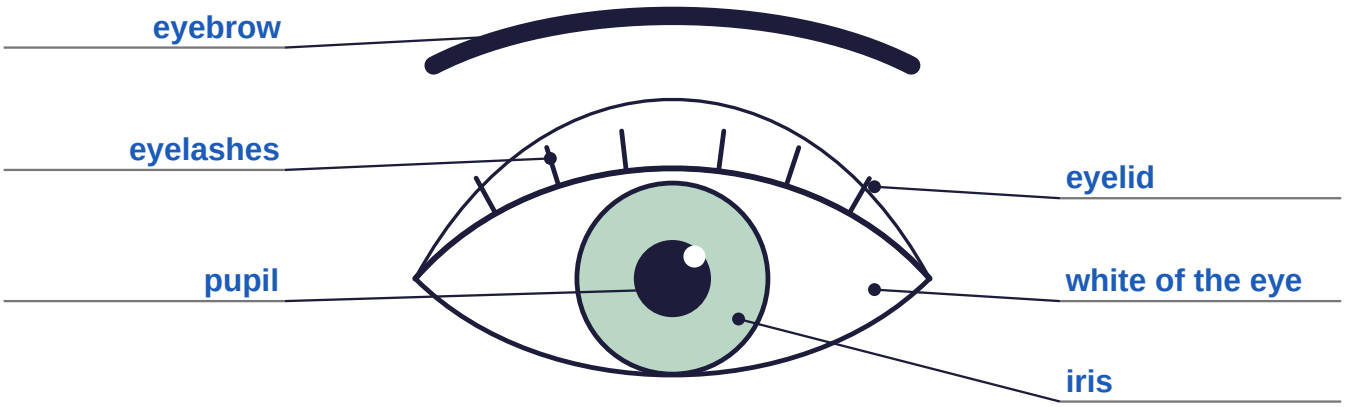

The traffic light has turned red. _____

A bite of food tastes bad, so you spit it out. _____

Answers: the five senses

Sense organ	Sense	Something to sense
	smell	a sour lemon
	touch	a rainbow after rain
	taste	a soft, furry kitten
	sight	a bell ringing
	hearing	bread baking

Answers: label the eye

1. In bright light, your pupil gets smaller . In dim light it gets bigger .

2. The coloured ring round the pupil is the iris .

3. Your eyelids and eyelashes help to keep dust out of your eyes.

Which sense warns you? Write the sense on the line.

A smoke alarm is beeping.	hearing
The milk has gone off and smells sour.	smell
A pan handle is too hot to hold.	touch
The traffic light has turned red.	sight
A bite of food tastes bad, so you spit it out.	taste