Mark-making — Easier ☆

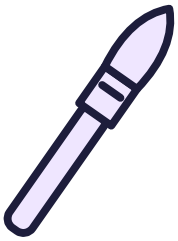

Draw a line like a snake, then a zigzag.

Mark-making — Easier ☆

Draw yourself.

Mark-making — Easier ☆

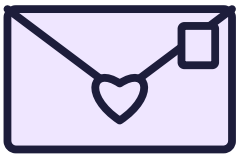

Make marks with a crayon, chalk and a brush.

Mark-making — Harder ☆☆

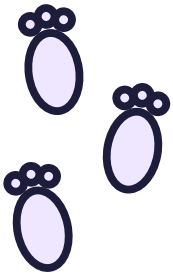

Write a shopping list for teddy.

Mark-making — Harder ☆☆

Make a card for someone and write your name.

Mark-making — Harder ☆☆

Draw a map of the way to the sandpit.

For grown-ups Mark-making · easier

"Draw yourself."

Ask:

- What do you need to add?
- What are you wearing?
- Who else could you draw?

Look for:

adding detail, talking about drawings

For grown-ups Mark-making · easier

"Draw a line like a snake, then a zigzag."

Ask:

- Can it go up and down?
- Can you make it bigger?
- Which line is easier?

Look for:

grip, control, big and small marks

For grown-ups Mark-making · harder

"Write a shopping list for teddy."

Ask:

- What does teddy need?
- What sound does it start with?
- How many things are on the list?

Look for:

early writing, letters and sounds

For grown-ups Mark-making · easier

"Make marks with a crayon, chalk and a brush."

Ask:

- Which one is smooth? Which is bumpy?
- Which do you like best?
- Can you make dots?

Look for:

exploring tools

For grown-ups Mark-making · harder

"Draw a map of the way to the sandpit."

Ask:

- What do you pass on the way?
- Where do you start?
- Can a friend follow it?

Look for:

position words, using symbols

For grown-ups Mark-making · harder

"Make a card for someone and write your name."

Ask:

- Who is it for?
- What will you draw?
- Can you write their name too?

Look for:

writing for a reason, names