Reading challenge bingo

Kindergarten to grade 2 · colour a square when you do it. Four in a row is bingo!

Name _____ Date _____

 Read in bed	 Read to a pet or a toy	 Read outside	 Read a bedtime story
 A book about an animal	 A book about space	 A funny book	 Read at school
 A library book	 A book about food	 A book about things that go	 A book with rhymes
 A book about weather	 A book about bugs	 Read to a grown-up	 Read your favourite again

A grown-up can read the squares aloud. Any book counts: picture books, comics and audiobooks too.

Reading challenge bingo

Grades 3–5 · read a book that fits, write its title, colour the square

Name _____ Date _____

A mystery title:	A poem, read out loud title:	A graphic novel title:	A book set in another country title:	A true story about a real person title:
A book a friend recommends title:	A book over 150 pages title:	A science book title:	An author who is new to you title:	A library book title:
A joke or riddle book title:	A folk tale or fairy tale title:	 Any book you like	The next book in a series title:	A book with a map in it title:
A book from this year title:	Read to someone younger title:	A history book title:	A book about sport title:	A story told by an animal title:
A book of facts and records title:	A book you chose by its cover title:	Read for 30 minutes in a row title:	A book that made you laugh title:	A book about how to make or do something title:

Five in a row is a line; all 25 is a full house. One book can fill one square only.