Fold-and-cut paper snowflake

How to make it · 15–30 minutes

You need

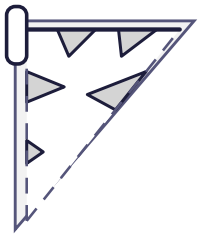

Thin paper: printer, origami or baking paper · Scissors · A paper clip to hold the folds

1

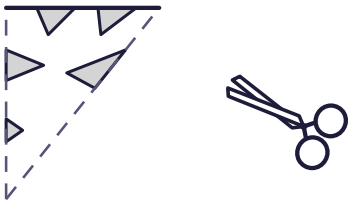

Fold a square of thin paper in half to make a triangle, then in half twice more.

2

Print the wedge on thin paper and clip it on top of your folded triangle, centre point to the folded point.

3

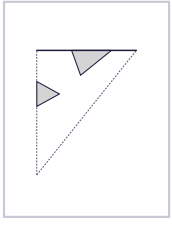

Cut away the grey shapes through every layer, then cut along the open edge.

4

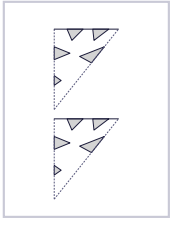

Unfold gently and press flat under a book.
