Gingerbread person

How to make it · 15–30 minutes

You need

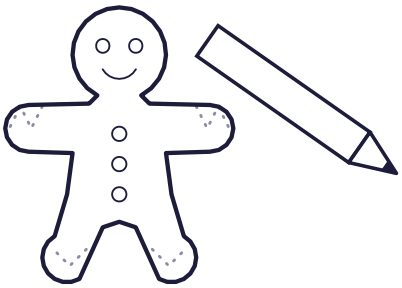

Brown card or paper (or white to colour) · Scissors · White crayon, buttons or stickers

1

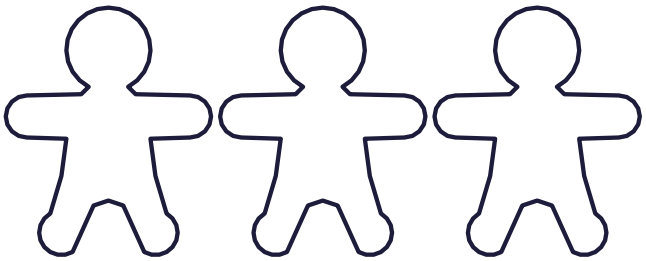

Cut round the outline: the curves round the head, hands and feet are good scissor practice.

2

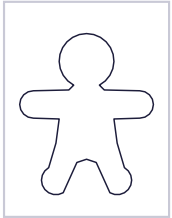

Draw icing along the dotted lines with a white crayon or paint pen, and add a face and buttons.

3

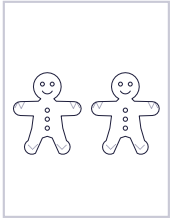

For a chain: fold a long strip like a fan, trace the half figure on the folds and cut through every layer.

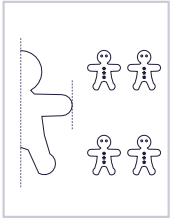

Pick a level: print only the page you need
